

The Alleghanian.

J. TODD HUTCHINSON, Publisher.

I WOULD RATHER BE RIGHT THAN PRESIDENT.—HENRY CLAY.

TERMS: $2.00 PER ANNUM.
$1.50 IN ADVANCE.

VOLUME 2.

EBENSBURG, PA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1860.

NUMBER 18.

DIRECTORY.

PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR "THE ALLEGHANIAN."

LIST OF POST OFFICES.

Post Office.	Post Masters.	Districts.
Johns Creek.	Joseph Graham, Yoder.
Bethel Station.	Joseph S. Mardis, Blacklick.
Carniflawn.	Benjamin Wirtner, Carroll.
Cave Spring.	Daniel Litzinger, Chest.
Crosscut.	John J. Troxell, Washint'n.
Ebensburg.	Mrs. H. McCague, Ebensburg.
Fallen Timber.	Isaac Thompson, White.
Gallitzin.	J. M. Christy, Gallitzin.
Germock.	Wm. McGough, Wash'tn.
Johnstown.	H. A. Boggs, Johnstown.
Linton.	Wm. Gwynn, Loretto.
Mount Pleasant.	E. Wissinger, Conemaugh.
Neckar.	A. Durbin, Munster.
Penns.	Francis Clement, Conemaugh.
Penns Valley.	Andrew J. Ferral, Susquehanna.
Redbank.	G. W. Bowman, White.
St. Armandine.	Wm. Ryan Sr., Clearfield.
Somerville.	George Conrad, Richland.
South.	B. M. Colgan, Wash'tn.
Somerville.	Wm. Murray, Croyle.
Summit.	Miss M. Gillespie, Wash'tn.
Wadsworth.	Andrew Beck, Summerhill.

CHURCHES, MINISTERS, &c.

Presbyterian—Rev. D. HARRISON, Pastor—	Preaching every Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock, and in the evening at 6 o'clock.
Episcopal Church—Rev. J. SPENCE,	in charge. Rev. J. M. SMITH, Asst.
Preaching every Sabbath, alternately	clock in the morning, or 7 in the Sabbath School at 5 o'clock, A. M., meeting every Thursday evening at 7
Independent—Rev. Lt. R. Powers,	Preaching every Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock, and in the evening at 6 o'clock.
Methodist—Rev. JOHN WILLIAMS,	Preaching every Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock, Sabbath School at 10 o'clock.
Prayer meeting every Friday evening at 8 o'clock.	Society every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.
Episcopal Methodist—Rev. JOHN WILLIAMS,	Preaching every Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock, Sabbath School at 10 o'clock.
Prayer meeting every Friday evening at 8 o'clock.	Society every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.
Episcopal—Rev. Wm. Lloyn, Pastor—Preaching every Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock.
Methodist—Rev. David JESSIE,	Preaching every Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock, Sabbath School at 10 o'clock.
Prayer meeting every Friday evening at 8 o'clock.	Society every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.
Methodist—Rev. M. J. McRANKA, Pastor—
Preaching every Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock, and in the evening at 6 o'clock.

EDENSBURG BLAZES.

MAILS ARRIVE.

Letters daily, at 12 o'clock, A. M.

Letters, at 10 P. M.

MAILS CLOSE.

Letters, daily, at 12 o'clock, P. M.

Letters, at 6 P. M.

Rev. The Mail from Butler, Indiana, Strong, etc., arrive on Thursday of each week, at 10 o'clock, P. M.

Local Postings on Friday of each week, at 10 o'clock.

The Mail from Newman's Mills, Carrollton, etc., arrive on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

Local Postings on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at 5 o'clock, A. M.

Local Post Office open on Sundays from 3 to 6 o'clock, A. M.

RAILROAD SCHEDULE E. & W.

WILMORE STATION.

West—Express Train leaves at 9:27 A. M.

East Line " 10:09 P. M.

Mail Train " 11:16 P. M.

Last—Express Train, " 8:10 P. M.

East Line " 6:30 A. M.

Mail Train " 10:04 A. M.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Judge of the Courts—President, Hon. Geo. Dylan, Huntingdon; Associate, George W. Long, Richard Jones, Jr.

Prothonotary—Joseph McDonald.

Register and Recorder—Michael Hasson.

Deputy Register and Recorder—John Scanlon.

Surgeon—Robert P. Linton.

Deputy Sheriff—William Linton.

County Attorney—Philip S. Nason.

County Commissioners—Abel Lloyd, D. T. Storn, James Cooper.

Clerk to Commissioners—Robert A. McCoy.

Treasurer—John A. Blair.

Post House Directors—David O'Harrow, Michael McGuire, Jacob Horner.

Post House Treasurer—George C. K. Zahn.

Post House Steward—James J. Taylor.

Second-class Appraiser—H. C. Devine.

Assessor—Henry Hawk, John F. Stull, E. F. Lyon.

County Surveyor—E. A. Vickroy.

Coroner—James S. Todd.

Superintendent of Common Schools—T. A. Maguire.

EBENSBURG TOW. OFFICERS.

Judges of the Peace—David H. Roberts, Harrison Kinkead.

Burgess—Andrew Lewis.

Town Council—William Kittell, William K. Piper, Charles Owens, J. C. Noon, Edward Showmaker.

Clerk to Council—T. D. Litzinger.

Borough Treasurer—George Gurley.

Weigh Master—William Davis.

School Directors—Edward Glass, William Davis, Reese S. Lloyd, John J. Lloyd, Morris J. Evans, Thomas J. Davis.

Treasurer of School Board—Evan Morgan.

Constable—George Gurley.

Tax Collector—George Gurley.

Attorney—Richard T. Davis.

Judge of Election—Ivan Evans.

Inspector—John S. Rhey, John J. Evans.

One kiss, full, oh! so full of motherly love.

"Dont cry, darling," he said, "you meant

POETRY.

The Union—Let it be Preserved.

Ye blessed sons and daughters
Whose infidelity is peace,
Pour oil upon the waters
And cause their rage to cease.
O men of mine own nation,
Will any idle stand,
While rank infatuation
Is perilling the land?
Why quench the beacon's burning
Whose radiance lights the sky,
To which all nations, turning,
Look with a hopeful eye?
If now its flame ye smother,
Ye quench the hopes of men:
How long before another
Shall light the world again?
While with mejeant motion
Our valley rivers run,
And, ere they swell the ocean,
Form an harmonious one—
So long may love insue us
(Let every patriot pray):
With olive-leaves to tame us,
Till Time's concluding day!

ONLY A DOLLAR.

"Only a dollar, Charlie."
"Only a dollar, eh?" said the young husband, with a smile, as he placed one foot on the ring of his wife's chair, while she leaned her elbow on his knee, and watched him open the steel clasp of his pocket-book. A solitary note and a few loose pieces of silver were all that presented themselves.

"Lucky enough, Adeline, that your demands are so small this noon," said Mr. Huntley, as he unrolled the crumpling paper, "nor I settled a debt of fifty dollars on you every Thursday evening, excepting the first week each month."

"Adeline, that you demands are so small this noon," said Mr. Huntley, as he unrolled the crumpling paper, "nor I settled a debt of fifty dollars on you every Thursday evening, excepting the first week each month."

"Goodness, what a place! I had no idea she was so wretchedly poor," mused to herself, as she sat in her dressing room, "that Mrs. Gray has not called for the money? I have laid by two dollars for her, as Mrs. Macay told me they were very poor; and as I am intending to call on that lady this afternoon, I will learn the residence of Mrs. Gray, and take this myself, for somehow her non-appearance troubles me."

"Only a dollar, Charlie."

"Only a dollar, eh?" said the young husband, with a smile, as he placed one foot on the ring of his wife's chair, while she leaned her elbow on his knee, and watched him open the steel clasp of his pocket-book. A solitary note and a few loose pieces of silver were all that presented themselves.

"Lucky enough, Adeline, that your demands are so small this noon," said Mr. Huntley, as he unrolled the crumpling paper, "nor I settled a debt of fifty dollars on you every Thursday evening, excepting the first week each month."

"Adeline, that you demands are so small this noon," said Mr. Huntley, as he unrolled the crumpling paper, "nor I settled a debt of fifty dollars on you every Thursday evening, excepting the first week each month."

"Goodness, what a place! I had no idea she was so wretchedly poor," mused to herself, as she sat in her dressing room, "that Mrs. Gray has not called for the money? I have laid by two dollars for her, as Mrs. Macay told me they were very poor; and as I am intending to call on that lady this afternoon, I will learn the residence of Mrs. Gray, and take this myself, for somehow her non-appearance troubles me."

"Only a dollar, Charlie."

"Only a dollar, eh?" said the young husband, with a smile, as he placed one foot on the ring of his wife's chair, while she leaned her elbow on his knee, and watched him open the steel clasp of his pocket-book. A solitary note and a few loose pieces of silver were all that presented themselves.

"Lucky enough, Adeline, that your demands are so small this noon," said Mr. Huntley, as he unrolled the crumpling paper, "nor I settled a debt of fifty dollars on you every Thursday evening, excepting the first week each month."

"Adeline, that you demands are so small this noon," said Mr. Huntley, as he unrolled the crumpling paper, "nor I settled a debt of fifty dollars on you every Thursday evening, excepting the first week each month."

"Goodness, what a place! I had no idea she was so wretchedly poor," mused to herself, as she sat in her dressing room, "that Mrs. Gray has not called for the money? I have laid by two dollars for her, as Mrs. Macay told me they were very poor; and as I am intending to call on that lady this afternoon, I will learn the residence of Mrs. Gray, and take this myself, for somehow her non-appearance troubles me."

"Only a dollar, Charlie."

"Only a dollar, eh?" said the young husband, with a smile, as he placed one foot on the ring of his wife's chair, while she leaned her elbow on his knee, and watched him open the steel clasp of his pocket-book. A solitary note and a few loose pieces of silver were all that presented themselves.

"Lucky enough, Adeline, that your demands are so small this noon," said Mr. Huntley, as he unrolled the crumpling paper, "nor I settled a debt of fifty dollars on you every Thursday evening, excepting the first week each month."

"Adeline, that you demands are so small this noon," said Mr. Huntley, as he unrolled the crumpling paper, "nor I settled a debt of fifty dollars on you every Thursday evening, excepting the first week each month."

"Goodness, what a place! I had no idea she was so wretchedly poor," mused to herself, as she sat in her dressing room, "that Mrs. Gray has not called for the money? I have laid by two dollars for her, as Mrs. Macay told me they were very poor; and as I am intending to call on that lady this afternoon, I will learn the residence of Mrs. Gray, and take this myself, for somehow her non-appearance troubles me."

"Only a dollar, Charlie."

"Only a dollar, eh?" said the young husband, with a smile, as he placed one foot on the ring of his wife's chair, while she leaned her elbow on his knee, and watched him open the steel clasp of his pocket-book. A solitary note and a few loose pieces of silver were all that presented themselves.

"Lucky enough, Adeline, that your demands are so small this noon," said Mr. Huntley, as he unrolled the crumpling paper, "nor I settled a debt of fifty dollars on you every Thursday evening, excepting the first week each month."

"Adeline, that you demands are so small this noon," said Mr. Huntley, as he unrolled the crumpling paper, "nor I settled a debt of fifty dollars on you every Thursday evening, excepting the first week each month."

"Goodness, what a place! I had no idea she was so wretchedly poor," mused to herself, as she sat in her dressing room, "that Mrs. Gray has not called for the money? I have laid by two dollars for her, as Mrs. Macay told me they were very poor; and as I am intending to call on that lady this afternoon, I will learn the residence of Mrs. Gray, and take this myself, for somehow her non-appearance troubles me."

"Only a dollar, Charlie."

"Only a dollar, eh?" said the young husband, with a smile, as he placed one foot on the ring of his wife's chair, while she leaned her elbow on his knee, and watched him open the steel clasp of his pocket-book. A solitary note and a few loose pieces of silver were all that presented themselves.

"Lucky enough, Adeline, that your demands are so small this noon," said Mr. Huntley, as he unrolled the crumpling paper, "nor I settled a debt of fifty dollars on you every Thursday evening, excepting the first week each month."

"Adeline, that you demands are so small this noon," said Mr. Huntley, as he unrolled the crumpling paper, "nor I settled a debt of fifty dollars on you every Thursday evening, excepting the first week each month."

"Goodness, what a place! I had no idea she was so wretchedly poor," mused to herself, as she sat in her dressing room, "that Mrs. Gray has not called for the money? I have laid by two dollars for her, as Mrs. Macay told me they were very poor; and as I am intending to call on that lady this afternoon, I will learn the residence of Mrs. Gray, and take this myself, for somehow her non-appearance troubles me."

"Only a dollar, Charlie."